Ruud Pujasumarta has seen some horrific gang-perpetrated crimes in his time, but the slum murder of a middle-aged woman he is called to is beyond baffling. Mari Agnes Liem has not only been choked to death while tied to her bed, but the murderer has amputated her left hand and left a mah-jong tile in her throat. And he has taken the hand with him.

Ruud's personal life is a disaster – the whole world seems to know that his wife has left him for another man, perhaps because his ex-mother-in-law keeps on turning up at his office with food for him. The only bright spot on Ruud's horizon is the imminent arrival of Imke Sneijder from Amsterdam, whom he hasn't seen since they were twelve-year-old neighbours.

As Ruud and his department investigate the crime and the others that follow, he begins to realise that the current murderous spree may be linked to events that occurred fifteen years ago, at about the time lmke left Indonesia . . .
